

The law protects you

In France,

- Prostitutes are recognized as victims
- Clients can be fined up to 1500 euros or are liable to imprisonment if the prostitute is a minor
- The fight against networks and pimping is reinforced
- Victims of prostitution or pimping can be assisted to break free of prostitution and reach social and professional integration

French law n° 2016-444, April 13, 2016, to strengthen the fight against the prostitution system and to support prostituted persons
